

HIGHGROVE

SALES AGENT/AREA SALES MANAGER
WEST MIDLANDS

High earnings potential

Highgrove is one of the UK's fastest growing bed brands and the company has recently expanded its operation with a move to a new 250,000 sq ft. manufacturing plant.

A vacancy has arisen for an experienced Sales Agent or full-time Area Sales Manager to provide service excellence and further develop our presence - primarily with independent accounts in this well established territory.

Ideally, you will already be calling on the major bed and furniture retailers in this area, however, applications from experienced retail bed or furniture sales people looking to develop their careers will also be considered.

With a wide range of products, unrivalled delivery service and increasing Advertising & Marketing support, this is an excellent opportunity to maximise your earnings potential.

If you would like to be considered for this position, please send your CV to
